The house and grounds of the electric car and took the boat at the point near Vinton, going to the Roanoke Water Power Company's dam, where a most palatable lunch was enjoyed. The following young women and men composed the party: Misses Sarah Bushnell, Nancy Logan, Annie Langhorne, Margaretta Bushnell, Carrie Brown, Constance Stearnes, Mackie Haas, of Bunkie, La., and Miss Spencer; A. M. Bowman, Jr., Robert Hubbard, Edmund Robinson, John Lee Logan, John Bushnell, F. C. Wiley, George Bushnell, Colonel William Terrell and Mr. Barclay.

Williamsburg Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Williamsburg, Va., July 30.—The midsummer social event here was the celebration Tuesday night from 8:30 to 11 o'clock of the golden wedding of Captain and Mrs. Levin Winder Lane. The house and grounds of the house on Waller Street were made brilliant with myriads of Japanese lanterns, and masses of golden glow were basked in the veranda, and led many gardeners. Captain and Mrs. Lane received their guests under a huge marriage tent of white cloth, and were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Lamb, of Norfolk, who celebrated the twenty-second anniversary of their wedding on the same occasion. All their children, their husbands and wives and the grandchild were present at the celebration. The immediate family consists of Colonel and Mrs. Winder Lane, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Lamb, and Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Lane, all of Williamsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Lamb, of Norfolk.

Captain and Mrs. Lane were married in James City county, July 25, 1859. Mrs. Lane was a daughter of the late Captain and Mrs. William L.
